

I Thank God. . .

INTRODUCTION

All of us have struggled through the COVID pandemic. Some have walked through the valley of the shadow of death. Some have rejoiced with the birth of new members in their families. Regardless of how your year has gone, we can give thanks, and we have the privilege of prayer.

There is much in the Scriptures about prayer and thanksgiving. In this message, I will follow the places in the New Testament where the biblical author says, "I thank God."

- I. The Wrong Way to Pray, Luke 18:11.

- II. Do we thank God for the truth we have been taught? Luke 10:21

- III. Do we thank God for answered prayers? John 5:28

- IV. Do we thank God for our faith? Romans 1:8

- V. Do we thank God for His grace? 1 Corinthians 1:4

- VI. Do we thank God for our baptism? 1 Corinthians 1:14

- VII. *Do we thank God for fellow church members and Christian friends?
Philippians 1:3 &19; 2 Timothy 1:3; and Philemon v. 4*

- VIII. *Do we thank God for giving us a place to serve and for our ministry?
1 Timothy 1:12*

CONCLUSION

Do we thank God for the privilege of prayer?
