

We Shall Behold Him

Written by Dottie Rambo

Rambo and a friend were driving to a revival when an unusually beautiful sunset appeared. She said there were “colors that I had never seen in my lifetime.” She thought of the wonderful prospect of Jesus, “coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (Matt. 24:30).

It was all she could do to drive as she began to compose the words and melody in her mind.

While many artists have recorded this song, the best known version is by Sandi Patty. Rambo asked Patty if she would sing the song. She later recalled sharing the song with her arranger, David Clydesdale. She said “we were sitting at my little spinet piano, talking about that song. And while we were sitting there, he {David} started arranging the orchestration, and two hours later, it was done. Wrote it right there on the spot, and the next day the musicians were playing it.”

One day we will see Jesus return, just the way Dottie Rambo did in her mind’s eye.

*The sky shall unfold
Preparing His entrance
The stars shall applaud Him
With thunders of praise*

*The sweet light in His eyes, shall enhance those awaiting
And we shall behold Him, then face to face*

*O we shall behold Him, we shall behold Him
Face to face in all of His glory
O we shall behold Him, yes we shall behold Him
Face to face, our Savior and Lord*

*The angel will sound, the shout of His coming
And the sleeping shall rise, from there slumbering place
And those remaining, shall be changed in a moment
And we shall behold Him, then face to face*

*We shall behold Him, o yes we shall behold Him
Face to face in all of His glory
We shall behold Him, face to face
Our Savior and Lord
We shall behold Him, our Savior and Lord
Savior and Lord!*
