

How's Your Fruit For The Lord?

*A simple question, yet profound,
A mirror held up, where truth is found.*

*Do your actions speak of love so pure,
Or are the seeds of kindness yet obscure?*

*Like a vine, are you bearing fruit so sweet,
A harvest ripe, for others to meet?*

*Is your joy a beacon, shining bright,
Guiding lost souls through darkest night?*

*Does patience bloom within your heart,
A gentle strength that plays its part?*

*Do you offer peace where discord reigns,
And kindness soothe life's bitter pains?*

*Examine well, the fruit you bear,
For in its quality, your faith is laid bare.*

*Let your life be an orchard, lush and wide,
Where the Spirit's fruit, in abundance, does reside.*

But the fruit of the Spirit is love
joy, peace,
longsuffering,
gentleness,
goodness, faith,
Meekness, temperance:
against such
there is no law.
