Summer Melody

Macine King

A garden's such a lovely thing,

It makes the gardener want to sing

A song of praise for sun and showers,

A song of joy for fruit and flowers.

A song that sings of honeybees,

Delicious spuds and early peas,

The juicy sweetness of a pear,

The giant squash marked "Save for fair!"

A song that sings of butter beans,

And lettuce leaves for wilted greens,

A song that always ends in prayer,

"Thank you, God, for miracles there."
