1 Thessalonians 5:17

We can see hope in the midst of hopelessness.

We can see peace in the midst of chaos.

We have a hope that the world does not have.

We can see clearly that all things work together for the good of them that love Him and are called according to His purpose.

Pastor's Paragraphs

This week's historical and spiritual sketch is of Reuben Atwater Chapman, Chief Justice of Massachusetts Supreme Court, 1869 – 1873. He accepted the Bible as the inspired Word of God, and held what is called the Evangelical Faith, regarding Jesus Christ as the Divine Redeemer of mankind. The Sabbath always found him in the place of worship, and he was habitually present at the weekly prayer meeting. He enjoyed the good old hymns and tunes, and loved to sing them. He was interested in Home Evangelization, reaching with religious influences the neglected neighborhoods; and in the work of Missions, Home and Foreign.
