Pastor's Paragraphs

William E. Dodge was a Congressman from New York City in 1866. Upon his death, when his will was read, he left $350,000.00 to various Christian organizations. But, more importantly, while speaking to the Lay Worker's College he said, "Christ died not only to open the prison door but to open the palace gate, and give men everlasting life. Impelled by this solemn truth, we shall say as we look and see men perishing, 'Here am I, send me. Use me in whatever way I can do most to save lost sinners.' A saved sinner myself, I can declare that God desires not the death of the wicked. He says to all, 'Turn ye, why will ye die?'"
