Pastor's Paragraphs

Dr. Strong, a pastor writes this about Chauncey Goodrich, Senator in Congress 1807 – 1813 from Connecticut, “from his early youth, he was a believer in the Christian religion. A moral life of itself is nothing for the salvation of the soul. I am a bundle of iniquity in the sight of a holy God. If there were not an atonement, I must be condemned and miserable forever. Here my hope is stayed. Sometimes a sense of my own imperfection sinks my spirit; . . . I have a hope that supports me; . . . I have rejoiced in God without fear, and wished only to be in His hands and serve Him.”

Pastor Dan Hillard
