Pastor's Paragraphs

Age does not qualify or disqualify us in the Lord's work. The first example is Thomas Mayhew, Governor of Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts from 1636 – 1681. He began himself at the age of seventy, to preach to the natives as well as the English, sometimes traveling on foot through the woods twenty miles in his work of love. Our second example is Amos Kendall, who was Postmaster General of the United States from 1835 to 1840. Mr. Kendall was seventy-six years old when he was baptized, at which time he became a teacher in the Sunday School.

We are told to let our light shine, and if it does, we won't need to tell anybody it does.

Lighthouses don't fire cannons to call attention to their shining-they just shine.
